Mrs. Johnston I will never forget you, ever! You have done so much to make my High School days something to remember forever.

Mrs. Johnston, both of us have certainly enjoyed having you as our home room teacher for our last and most enjoyable year in high school. We will remember you as one who contributed so much to our lives.

Love, Pete & Emily

Foreword

Seconds are left; our time is running out. Our last touchdown is in full view. We've scored a victory—our last at Millbrook. The game is finished. Our task is done. We've raced the field from kick off to the last yea, and now, we, as victorious '53 Seniors, proudly, humbly, and somewhat reluctantly pass a long straight pass on to future classes. With loving eyes, we look back upon our freshman, and sophomore, junior and senior years with sincere thanks for the fond memories we will treasure forever. We've scored our wins and suffered our losses, gaining true understanding and never forgetting values from our coaches and captains. Through our first year, we were ever faced with the challenge of possible defeat. Then our second year, we gained new courage, faced the future with a new hope. The third year we began to realize the scores of records we were placing on the books. Now we as Seniors are looking back over our wins and losses. Proud and with hearts full of fond memories of the good times and the bad, we only hope that by this 1952-53 Laurel, the players who are stepping forward may gain from our example, our trials and errors. We now wish to pass the ball for the last time and run for our last touchdown, wishing, hoping, and praying that God will be with you and guide you to Victory in the way that He has guided us.

Prophecy

Well! Hello, you are just in time to join me on my magic carpet. We are going to take a glimpse of our Seniors of '53 as they are in the future.

As we leave Millbrook we see the biggest sawmill south of the Mason-Dixon Line, and our own RONALD NORWOOD is the owner. I wonder who that is coming through the door. Why it's BETTY JEAN TURNER, it seems natural that she's here.

Before we travel too far let's look down on the Falls of Neuse where we see MARY NORWOOD, JOAN HOLMES, and NINA LLOYD who are all now Mrs. Barham. But don't worry; they didn't marry the same man.

JOYCE DEAN and SAM NORWOOD, who were voted the best looking in our class, are now Mr. and Mrs. America.

HAYWOOD BARHAM has joined many of our other Millbrook alumni at Bell Telephone Co.

As we travel on we see PEGGY STEWART, one of the best surgeons in the nation, after she has completed an operation with the assistance of nurses PEGGY FERGUSON and GERALDINE POOLE. But oh my goodness! Here come H. C. HARTON and ROBERT SHUFFLER of the "Friendly Hearse Drivers." Oh well, better luck next time, doc.

Back to the big city of Raleigh we see SHIRLEY DANIELS, manager of McClellan's five and ten cent store, and her secretary PEGGY BOWLES planning the grand opening for their new store.

Let's turn on the radio . . . Well! Guess who's talking? CHARLES WATKINS naturally. He is the new disc-jockey for WMHS and he is now doing his program sponsored by BARNES, HALL, and JONES, Used Car Dealers.

BOBBY BARKER, our class Romeo, is at it again. He is thrilling all the girls by quoting poetry by the famous American poet, VANCE TURNER.

MRS. GERTRUDE WRIGHT, MRS. SUE JOHNSON, and MRS. ETHEL BROOKS, who got married during our Senior year, are living a peaceful and happy married life.

Let's pick up a newspaper and see if any of our classmates are in the news. Well! we see on the front page the Red Cross poster of the year picturing KATHERINE RANDALL as "The Woman in White."

MARION BENTON also made the news today since this is Boy Scout week and Marion is the Director of the Boy Scouts of America.

Why here's a "write-up" about the biggest tobacco plantation of modern times. We are very proud that the two owners, TERRY and JERRY BAILEY, began their work while at Millbrook.

Now let's turn to the sports section and see the All-American Football line-up. We are not surprised to see three of our Millbrook boys mentioned. EDWARD GRIFFIN, NORRIS ROSZEL, and J. M. MEARES made a splendid record this year.

As we turn the page we see that basketball has gotten an early start. Swarthmore played the Wolfpack and Swarthmore won by 20 points, but it is only natural since PETE HOADLEY is playing for Swarthmore.

And by the way, the successful editors of this newspaper are our own SHIRLEY LORREN and MELVIN NEWTON.

Let's drop by a drive-in on our way back and maybe we will get a chance to speak to ROB BELL, who owns a chain of drive-ins from Millbrook to Hillsboro.

This completes our journey and I think Millbrook should be proud of the Seniors of '53.

Forever yours,
EMILY MUNCH
Prophet

Class History of 1953

We, as seniors, have reached a very important phase in our life. We are now beginning anew. As we leave Millbrook High we will be meeting new friends and entering into different activities, but we will always have special memories of our own Millbrook High.

In 1949 a group of entirely different individuals gathered together with Mr. James as our home room teacher. Some had been together in lower grades and some were meeting for the first time. During this year Lois Mangum, Margaret McGowan, Sammy Helms, and Jean Jones joined our class. We regretted losing some of these same students, Lois Mangum, Margaret McGowan and Sammy Helms, along with some of our old classmates, Billy Perry and Esther McLeod, who moved to other communities. Along with our school work we had our social life, for Mrs. Barber, our home economics teacher, helped us plan a party at Bayleaf Club House. Also our grade mothers gave us several parties throughout the year. The F. F. A. and F. H. A. Clubs sponsored a three day trip to Washington, D. C. our freshman year and a grand time was had by all.

As we entered our sophomore year, with Mr. Flamnia as our home room teacher, we were a more settled group, for we knew now what to expect and what was expected of us. This year we gained many students but many left us also. We were very happy that Clifford McDuffie joined our class, but were sorry to see him leave in a few months. Louise Hill left and is now working in Hudson Belk's. Demaris Ross moved to Garner, and Charlotte Fuller moved to Raleigh. Several of our girls were married during the year. Carol Harvell became Mrs. Buddy Looper; Leona Chambers, Mrs. Freeman Crutchfield; Lib Lundy, Mrs. Jasper Batts; Deanie Stokes, Mrs. Ervin O'Neal; and Jean Jones, Mrs. Carl Mitchell. We regretted losing each of these but we know they are very happy. This year there was a very delightful Christmas party held in the cafeteria sponsored by the senior class. Later in the spring our grade mothers gave us a picnic supper at Pullen Park which we all enjoyed very much.

Our junior year was filled with plans for our junior play and the Junior-Senior Banquet. We enjoyed preparing and giving our play "The Professor goes Haywire" which was the exciting story of a young professor having to fight a prize fighter. Following the play came our Junior-Senior Banquet which we had at Johnny's. With the help of Mrs. Kahn, our home room teacher, we carried out the theme of a night club with a radio broadcast made by several famous celebrities. In order to make money for our banquet the class sold Christmas cards which took a lot of hard work, but we enjoyed every minute of it. During the year Nina Lloyd joined us from Wake Forest and Sally Blackwell from Rolesville. We still have Nina with us but Sally decided to set up house keeping. This year our Christmas party was at the Bayleaf Club House where we exchanged gifts, played games, and did some square dancing. We also had a picnic at the end of the year at Lake Mirl which was given by our grademothers.

Now it is 1953 and here we are Seniors, with Mrs. Johnston as our home room teacher and adviser. We have been a very busy class this year with our publishing of The Laurel, our Senior Play and preparing to graduate. We had a Tacky Party at Brook's Recreation Center to raise money for The Laurel. Our grademothers gave us a Bar-B-Q supper this year and it was thoroughly enjoyed by everyone. Four new students joined us this year: Rob Bell from Hillsboro, Peggy Bowles from South Carolina, Katherine Randall and Peggy Stewart from the Junior Class. We are very glad to have each of them with us.

Now we are approaching summer, but this year we aren't looking forward to it with the wild excitement of the past three years. Instead, we are a little sad about not returning in September, for our high school days are over and we are setting out on a new and different period in our lives. We are leaving now with many cherished memories of four wonderful years at Millbrook High School.

BETTY JEAN TURNER
Historian

Class Poem

We Seniors have reached the height of scholarship and soon we must go,
From the halls of dear old Millbrook which we all love so.

Now as we prepare for our graduation
There is much fuss and aggravation.

But, when it is all over and in the coming year,
Our memories of our school days we will always hold dear.

Our years at Millbrook have all been filled with fun;
But now we are going to leave you everyone.

In our parting to our friends we say goodby;
And to all of you we leave our dear old Millbrook High.

VANCE TURNER
Class Poet

Last Will and Testament

As we the class of 1953 approach the end of this out last quarter of the game, we wish to thank the many people who have aided us in our climb to the top and who shall now take our places.

ARTICLE 1

To our grademothers we leave thanks for supplying us with those wounderful "get togethers" and all the other necessities that you furnished to complete a perfectly enjoyable school career.

ARTICLE 2

To the School Board, the Athletic Club and the P. T. A. We leave our appreciation for your unforgettable co-operation in all that we have attempted.

ARTICLE 3

To Mrs. Haithcock we leave luck in securing a huge library with an up-to-date card catalogue.

ARTICLE 4

To Mrs. Haithcock, Mrs. Kirkman, and Mrs. Jones we leave our gratitude for those huge helpings which were served in such a pleasing manner.

ARTICLE 5

To the grade teachers we leave our deepest appreciation for the patience, interest, understanding and thoughfulness that they have shown us during past years and which will act as a guiding light to help us on our way.

ARTICLE 6

To those who will be entering high school next year we leave our best wishes and hope that they will become accustomed to high school sooner than we did and that they may enjoy as many happy times as we have enjoyed.

ARTICLE 7

To the Freshmen Class, a very deserving group, we leave the best chances of a good place for Sophomores to keep their books.

ARTICLE 8

To the Sophomores we leave the responsibility of the Junior year and luck in raising all that necessary money, but we are assured that they are able to tackle any task that might confront them and go far with their ingenious and original individualities.

ARTICLE 9

To the Juniors we leave the leadership of the high school, a majority of the offices in various clubs, several basketball suits, and our senior privileges, if you can find them, but we feel sure that our capable Junior friends can carry the load very successfully.

ARTICLE 10

To Mr. Johnson we leave our deepest appreciation for his coaching and giving our school a chance to participate in football, as well as a theme for our annual.

To Mr. Winborne we leave hope and lots of luck in obtaining more F. F. A. banners.

To Miss Sanderford we leave our best wishes and heartiest congratulations in her forthcoming marriage.

To Mr. Beasley we wish to leave gratitude for the understanding way in which he has helped us along the way.

To Miss Olive we leave fond appreciation and thanks for offering to us a friendship that no other could match and at the same time starting us in high school and boosting us all the way.

To Miss Stevens we leave our deepest appreciation for doing such a wonderful job of coaching the girls and also doing a good job of teaching us our commercial studies.

To Mrs. Johnston we leave a class with no marriages or engagements as yet.

To Mrs. Yelton we leave hopes for an enormous and well equipped lab for next year.

ARTICLE 11

Ronald Norwood wills his clear court record to Buzzy Anthony.

The members of the Junior Classical League covenant to hand on the torch of classical civilization in the modern world. They believe an acquaintance with the civilization of Greece and Rome will help them understand and appraise this world of today which is indebted to ancient civilization in its governments, laws, literatures, languages and arts.
